A. Inventory & warehouse data (Warehouse Wizard)

Developer Requests

1. Where is Log Out?
2. Keep Crew+ and SOP+ live, but do not allow crew to login to these yet as they are not ready.
3. Add the Daily Logs for September from the PDF attachment. Flag items that need review for Jordan to complete. He has not done August yet, so he will do them all at once. Please triple check that logs are correctly input into the tool as we are losing BuilderTrend and Warehouse Wizard will be our only source for these logs.
4. Logins:
<https://docs.google.com/spreadsheets/d/1EKxNsSK7GyZ3OYhTupU9XLWnv9tgj79SoyFF-jE0Ck0/edit?gid=1027071879#gid=1027071879>
5. Costs for materials - These are updated
 - a. Column H
<https://docs.google.com/spreadsheets/d/1EKxNsSK7GyZ3OYhTupU9XLWnv9tgj79SoyFF-jE0Ck0/edit?gid=728197960#gid=728197960>

6. Stock counts will be updated in the spreadsheet. We will let you know when these are ready to import into the tool. Once the tool is launched to our crew, we will only update our stock on the Warehouse Wizard tool (not the spreadsheet) moving forward
7. Developer to confirm
 - a. Stock can be logged IN
 - b. When stock is logged OUT, the inventory count is updated
 - c. Daily logs (existing and new) save
8. Incident Reports
 - a. Anyone can add these, but crew members should not be able to see each others. Manager and Admin can see them all, crew can see their own.
9. Company feedback box
 - a. Only Admin and author can see

Project Manager features

Home Page

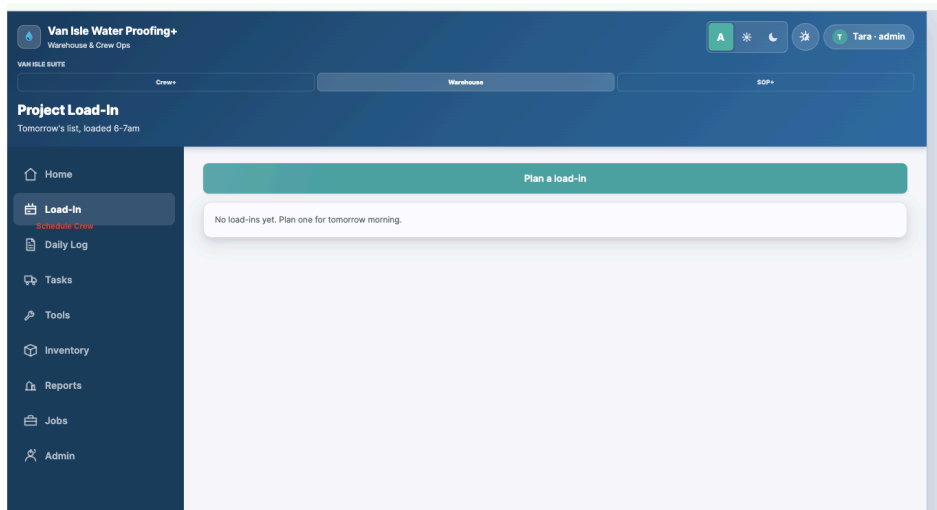

All they need to see is shortcuts to these:

- Assign project load-in
- Jobs
- Check daily logs
- Inventory Log - Needs Review
- Needs attention items below

Schedule Crew

- Is there a way to assign the crew with the jobs that they're working at the next day?
- Schedule Crew (new menu item under "Load-In")
 - The Project Manager can pick which crew members can pick a date, the specific job, and where to meet (warehouse or job site), notes section
 - When they project manager selects a job, it will automatically share the job details from the Jobs section + corresponding files

Crew Features

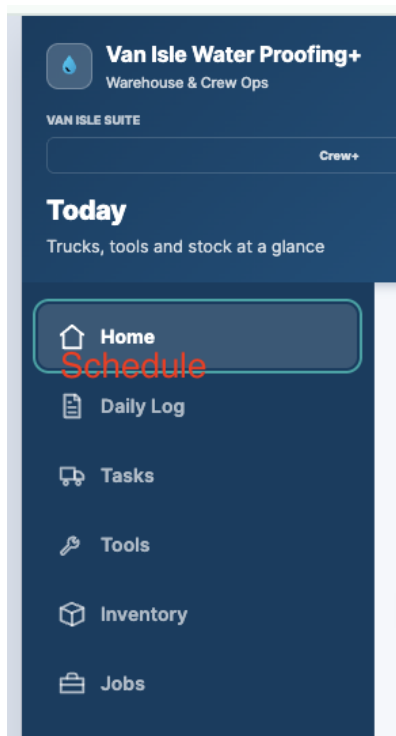

CREW - Home Page

The crew members only need to see shortcuts to these things on their home page:

- Schedule (job site they're assigned to)
- Jobs → They should be able to see the project details + plans (uploads) for the jobs they're assigned to only
- Task alerts specific to them
- Add A Daily Log
- Gas Station Check
- Check Out Tools

Schedule

- Add this menu item
- This section will show the date, the specific job, and where to meet (warehouse or job site), view notes (these would be assigned by the project manager)

Daily Log

When a crew member selects the service, they should only see the products available for that service for inventory items. Right now, they see everything

- Refer to Column C here → <https://docs.google.com/spreadsheets/d/1EKxNsSK7GyZ3OYhTupU9XLWnv9tgj79SoyFF-jE0Ck0/edit?gid=728197960#gid=728197960>
- If Column C does not have a service, those products can be available for ALL services

Developer Feedback

Crew member job descriptions and KPIs won't be ready until October or later as we are working with a business coach on these

Send the following reminder to all full-time crew on October 15th of every year.

HEALTH SPENDING ACCOUNT

Hi All,

This is a reminder to use your Health Spending Account!

Important Information about the HSA

You must use the money from now until December 31 of the calendar year. The amount will renew on January 1 of next year.

Please log in to the app to see your remaining balance.

Here is a breakdown of how the Health Spending Account works:

- The employee spends $100 on the bill.
- The employer will remit $100 plus the 6% admin fee plus the GST on the admin fee (in this scenario, it would be $106.30 the employee will pay out)
- The employee gets $100 back.

The HSA is not insurance. Employees can explore insurance through a different avenue or product.

Note: Since Josh and Logan are no longer with the organization, put any points they've earned into a CREW pool we will use toward a company breakfast.
