

TESTING: We will test the live site and provide input and feedback this week.

CREW USE: We want the tool to be live and ready for the team to log in and use by September 14. This is the day the crew will input their data and test all tools.

These will be input directly into the tool the week of October 2.

- Mileage and last-service fields for trucks
- Tools
- Crew personal data & certifications

Questions:

- How much will these tools cost to run on a monthly basis?
- How do we reach out to do you to do revisions/tweaks to the sites?

The tool must always have the most up-to-date jobs and recent jobs active for it to function properly. The job info can come from QuickBooks (In Progress Projects under a customer) or SuperCrew (Open jobs).

We are hoping to replace BuilderTrend with a blend of Google Drive (links to files) and the 3 tools you're developing + <https://supercrew.com/> (for time tracking and scheduling, tasks)

- Warehouse Wizard: Inventory, Tremco, Daily Inventory Logs, Trucks
 - NEW: Daily Logs (notes about the job) with Daily Inventory Logs (pull exact quantities used)
 - NEW: Job Details (links to resources about the job)
- Crew+: Internal crew details
- SOP+: Systems & Processes

We do not want our Warehouse Wizard tool to overlap with what Google Drive can do (hold docs) or SuperCrew offers.

Developer Feedback

- Recent activity - this data does not match what was provided in the PDFs. There should be real inputs here like daily logs with their notes + items used and quantities. Please ensure all data on this PDF is import correctly, including: Weather, NOTES, Materials used (name + quantities)
 - Jordan Rogers should be notified to correct any product names, quantities or units that are unclear.

- Move Daily Log form under the date/job/service section as they need to fill out the details and then pick the materials used

The screenshot shows a web form titled 'Daily Log'. At the top, there are three tabs: 'Materials', 'Tremco', and 'Daily Log'. The 'Daily Log' tab is selected. Below the tabs, the form is organized into several sections:

- DATE: A date picker showing '2026-09-08'.
- JOB SITE: A list of job sites with 'Etro - Hyatt, 1312 Broad Street (AKA Durwest)' selected. Other visible sites include 'Parker Jonhston- Campus View Housing 2249 McCoy St', 'z. Inspections', and 'IWCD, Esquima'. There is an 'Add job site' button and an 'Add' button.
- SERVICE: A list of service types with 'Waterproofing' selected. Other visible services include 'Insulation', 'Crack Injection', 'Traffic Coatings', and 'Vehicle / General'.
- Bottom Section: A row of buttons labeled 'use', 'deliver', 'return', 'receive', and 'loss'.
- Footer: A search bar labeled 'Search materials to add' and a red text label 'Move daily log form here'.

- Inventory log and all reports - need to be able to print by a date range as the CFO will only want to review logs by month
- Where can I find the daily logs from August that you input from the PDF daily logs I provided? How will Jordan Rogers know which items to edit (unit, name etc) that were unclear from the crew logs?
- Tremco section is empty. Is there a reason for that? I'd like to see all tremco items there once we confirm this is up to date:
 - Tremco spreadsheet from CFO - without considering his data (our spreadsheet is the one that is correct), can we incorporate any of the functionality into the reporting so he can easily export and add to Quickbooks?

Developer Requests

Need developer to add to the tool:

Daily logs & inventory for September using the PDF provided → Flag incorrect products or quantities for Jordan Rogers to fill out

Inventory Tracking Edits

We are adjusting a few line items, and this will need to be updated when we have it ready. Stay tuned.

Job Documents & PDFs

Is it possible to have an area where all active jobs live and we create folders and upload PDFs, docs and photos there so the crew can see site plans? Or, for something even easier, we can share a link to a Google Drive folder where the jobs' files live.
